ORDER

Adopted: August 30, 2005Released: August 31, 2005

By the Deputy Associate General Counsel, Administrative Law Division:

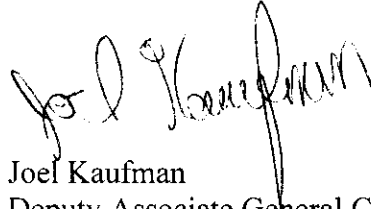

1. The above-captioned applications were designated for an expedited hearing limited solely to the issue of time-sharing. Hearing Designation Order, 19 FCC Rcd 6291 (Audio Division/Media Division 2004) (conditionally granting both applications), modified, DA 05-2000 (July 13, 2005) (vacating the conditional grants, returning both applications to pending status, and expanding the hearing issue to determine whether a time-sharing arrangement between the applicants would result in a more effective use of the specified channel than would operation restricted to Piscataway Board of Education and, thus, better serve the public interest). Pursuant to Section 1.115 of the Commission's rules, Piscataway Board of Education on July 18, 2005, filed an Application for Review of DA 05-2000, asserting that the Bureau erred in not dismissing the application of King's Temple Ministries, Inc. In a pleading filed on August 10, 2005, Piscataway now withdraws the pending appeal.¹

2. ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED, That pursuant to the authority delegated under 47 C.F.R. § 0.251(c), the Withdrawal of Application for Review, filed August 10,

¹ King's Temple Ministries filed a Motion to Withdraw Application on July 26, 2005. By Order, FCC 05-36 (rel. Aug. 4, 2005), the ALJ granted the Motion to Withdraw Application and dismissed King's Temple's application for authority to construct a new NCE FM station on a time-sharing basis with Station WVPH(FM). The order also granted Piscataway's application for renewal of the license for noncommercial educational Station WVPH(FM) and terminated the hearing in the above-captioned proceeding.

2005, by Piscataway Board of Education IS ACCEPTED; and the Application for Review, filed July 18, 2005, by Piscataway Board of Education IS DISMISSED.
